

Teaching Policy

Payment for Instruction

North Shore ElderCollege Society is a volunteer-run, not-for-profit organization, and as such instruction of courses is on a voluntary basis. Individuals or businesses that donate time for instruction may gently promote their external services or offerings to course participants with the prior approval of the Board.

Version 1, 12 February 2016