

Incredible Journeys

September 22: French Canal Adventures

Ron McMillin shares his adventures on a 37 foot canal boat through the lock system of southern France, from the Mediterranean Sea, along the Canal du Midi to Carcassone.

September 29: Holidaying in New Zealand and Australia

Ian Thomas embarked on a 6 week trip to Oceania in February and March 2016. Ian will share with us the many highlights of his trip, suggesting what to do in the planning of such a trip, showing us what to see and do whilst there, and how best to manage one's time and resources to take full advantage of what the two countries offer.

October 6: Adventures in Barkerville, BC

Ed Kry will share his stories of Barkerville, the main town in BC for the Cariboo Gold Rush. Did you know it was once the largest town west of Chicago and north of San Francisco?

October 13: The Joys of Independent Travel in South America

Stu and Sally McDonald will focus on the cultural and exploration opportunities facilitated by independent travel in South America. Come and learn how they experienced this vast continent and all it has to offer, using various means of travel.

October 20: Discovering my Australia

Join Colin Topley, a young Australian who left home at 19, only to return numerous times over the next 50 years to discover the land, his family and friends, all of which influenced his identity, his values & his personality. Colin will share stories and photos of his visits back to Australia, an exotic & changing country.

October 27: Zambia and South Africa

Join Jeanette Froese for her presentation on Zambia and South Africa, and learn about projects that her organization is funding, including the Stephen Lewis Foundation that helps sub-Saharan grandmothers to raise grandchildren orphaned by AIDS. Share in her safari adventures, with many fascinating photos.